

Maryland Traditions
Presents

Maryland Masters

Down the Street, Around the World.

An Annual Gathering and Showcase of Traditional Performance
Featuring 2009 Masters & Apprentices

Evening concert featuring:

Cheick Hamala Diabate

Daryl Davis

P.K. and Lalitha Swaminathan

Junious "House" Brickhouse

Thursday, June 11, 2009
Creative Alliance at The Patterson, Baltimore

MD Traditions is a partnership of the Maryland State Arts Council and the Maryland Historical Trust to discover, share and sustain living traditions.

June 11, 2009

Gathering: What Makes A Master?

4pm-7:30pm ■ Free. Reservations Required.
Call 410-767-6555

4pm ■ Join us for discussions and demonstrations of living traditions in Maryland. Also, meet Masters and Apprentices of Screen Painting, Taxidermy, and Smith Island Cake.

Taste of Traditions

6pm ■ Great food and insights from the cooks.

Photo Exhibition

Celebrating 2009 Masters and Apprenticeships
by Edwin Remsberg

Meet Maryland's Musical Masters

8pm ■ A powerful evening of masterful performances: Boogie-woogie piano legend Daryl Davis; West African ngoni master Cheick Hamala Diabate; South Indian Karnatic musicians P.K. and Lalitha Swaminathan; hip-hop dance master Junious "House" Brickhouse.

Tickets $6. Go to www.creativealliance.org

Creative Alliance at The Patterson

3134 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore
410-276-1651

www.marylandtraditions.org

Maryland State Arts Council
175 West Ostend Street
Baltimore MD 21230
410-767-6555
www.msac.org

Maryland Department of Planning

Martin O'Malley, Governor